FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 27, 2009 – BETHESDA, MD -- Triad Technology Partners today announced the launch of its Web site, www.triadtechpartners.com. CEO Tim Hohman and President Bridget Dunnington, founders of Triad, believe a Web presence will enhance their visibility in the Federal Government technology marketplace.

Triad was founded in 2009 by Tim Hohman and Bridget Dunnington as a woman-owned small business technology reseller focused on the Public Sector. Tim and Bridget bring to Triad decades of enterprise software expertise. Whether you are a Federal Agency concerned about software consolidation, or a software company attempting to enter the Federal Government market, Triad's goal is to match innovative technologies to government requirements at the best possible value. Triad's areas of focus are Enterprise Asset Management, IT Service and Asset Management, Virtualization and Data Center Operations.

"As we attempt to identify and deliver innovative technologies to the Federal Marketplace, our Web site will allow both Government purchasers and Technology Manufacturers to understand Triad's value proposition," noted CEO Tim Hohman.
